Targum Yonatan on 1 Kings

Chapter 1

And King David went to the house of Levi, and he put on a robe and a robe, and he did not wash his clothes.
And they said unto Leah, My servant shall go to my lord Malcha the king of the world in Tolta, and he shall serve before Malcha, and Leah said, Come near, and lie down by thy side, and be clothed for my lord Malcha.
And when he was come, he went forth into all the borders of the land of Israel, and remembered the days of Abishak the Shunammite, and Ahithophel:
and he gave it unto the king: and the days of Abishak the Shunammite, and he gave it unto the king And Parshin and fifty mighty men: my former pursuers, and my father's sons, from the day of my birth, to Memar, who is not a judge, as you are a servant, and he is also a Shapir in Reuah: to Heda and Jatiah, the daughter of Absalom's son.

And he took counsel with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest, and with Saadin the son of Adonijah.
And Zadok, as he was, and his sons, the son of Jehoiada, were given to David a prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and Gabriel, a mighty man of valor, by the counsel of his lord Adonijah.
And Adonijah took An, and Torin, and Fatimah, with the stone of Sechtha, the judge of Bister, Ein Katzra, and Zamin, and gave them: all my brothers, the sons of Malcha, and to all the men of Judah, the servants of Malcha: and he gave Nathanael, his sons, and Gibriah, and Solomon, my brother, without Zamin.
And he said, Let the daughter of Sheba, whose mother was Disholm, say, Have you not heard of the lions of King Adonijah, the son of Haggith? And our Lord David knoweth not.
And I will make you king like a king, and I will give you peace, and the peace of your soul shall be in your bosom, Solomon.
I will go up to King David and say to him, "Isn't it true that my lord the king has made you a king, and he will sit on the throne of my kingdom, and what is the law of my lord the king? And behold, you will fill Taman before King Malchi, and I will prosper in your way and establish my throne." And the daughter of Sheba went up before the king to Idron the house of Meshech: and the king returned to Hadad, and Abishag the Shunammite: Meshech went before the king.

And the daughter of Sheba bowed herself and worshipped the king. And the king said, What is it to you?
And you said to him, "My lord, you have fulfilled your promise, saying, 'Your God is sufficient for you, and your son Solomon shall reign over you in my stead.' And he shall sit on the throne of my kingdom."
"And as for Adonijah, king, and you, my lord, king, you do not know, and you have seized the Torah and the Fatimah, and here is Segy and Samson for all the sons of King Malcha, and for Abiathar, as here, and for Joab, the great: and for Shlomo, your servant, there is no Samson. And as for my lord, king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, as for Eve, as for Hoon, who shall sit on my throne?" :Malchuta Dervoni Malcha Batruhi
And it shall come to pass, that my lord the king shall lie down with his father, and I and my brother Solomon shall lie down.
to you. :And behold, Od is filled with a king, and a prophet is given
And he said to the king, "Has a prophet been given to you, and you have gone before the king, and you have worshipped the king on my lips, on the face of the earth?"
And he said, "My lord the king, give me the word of the Lord, and I will make you king in my stead, and he will sit on the throne of my kingdom, and I will bring you the land of the Lord, and I will bring you the sack of Torin and Fatimah, and I will send you a message and a feast to all the sons of the king, and to my rabbis: Hela and Abiathar, here and there, and he will not eat, and he will give a gift to my ancestors." And he said, "May the king of my lord prosper." :But I, your servant, and Zadok, the son of Kahana, and Libnah, the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Shlomo, have no time, if from my lord the king there is a pithamah of justice, and you do not know who will sit on the thrones of the kingdom: my pursuer, king of my fathers, And King David answered and said, Call me the queen of Sheba, and go up before them, and stand

Therefore, as you have said to me, "May the God of Israel give you a son, Solomon, your son, to reign in my place: and he shall sit on the throne of my kingdom in my place; therefore I will be your servant on the day of judgment."

And the daughter of Sheba fell on her face upon the ground, and worshipped the king, and said, Let my lord King David live forever.

And King David said, "Call me a righteous man like this, and raise up a prophet, and let his sons know the name of Jehoiada, and let him go before them."

And King Malcha said to the king, "Speak to the servants of the Lord, and let Solomon my son ride on the chariot of the LORD: 'It is enough for me, and let him go to Shiloh.'"
And I will anoint Taman Zadok to be priest, and I will give him a prophet to be king over Israel, and he will blow the trumpet: and I will bless King Solomon, and he will dwell in my house, and I will give him a seat on the throne of my kingdom, and he will reign in my place, and I will give him a commandment: to be king over Israel and over Judah.

And I will write to Ben-Yehovah the son of Jehoiada, knowing that Malcha was king, and I will say, "Truly, you will be a foe from before them, O God, my pursuer: Malcha."
As it is said by Yamra, "Enough is enough" at the feasts of my king, so it will be at the feasts of my lord, and the number of his thrones will be increased: from the thrones of the kingdom, my lord, King David.
And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and his sons, Jehoiada the son of Jehoiada, and Keshtia, and Kelaia, and his sons, the sons of Solomon: upon the throne of David king of Israel, and his sons, Jatiah, to Shiloh.
And Naseeb Zadok said, "Behold, the trumpet of the Lord came from the tabernacle, and the anointing of Solomon, and they blew the trumpet, and all said, 'Long live King Solomon!'"
And they gathered all the people of Tarohi, and the people of Mashbin in Hingah, and the people of Rehoboam, and the people of Rehoboam, and the people of Zerah, and the people of Calhoun, and Adonijah and all the people of Zerah heard, and they could not bear it any longer. And Joab heard, and the sound of the trumpet was heard, and he said, What is the law of Cal Karta, that thou hast come?
And it came to pass at night, that Jonathan the son of Abiathar was there, and said, Adonijah, I have sinned against you, and bring you good tidings: and Jonathan answered and said unto his master, In the day of our Lord, King David, let Solomon be king.
The prophet Bunnihu son of Jehoiada, and Keshiah and Kelaiah, and he sent with him Malcha, and Zadok, and Nathan, and he set him on the throne of Malcha, and anointed Zadok, and Nathan Disinformation

:And Solomon shall sit upon the throne of the kingdom.
And even the servants of the king went up to him, saying, "Blessed be the day of our Lord, King David, and blessed be the day of the house of Solomon: From your name and from the multitude of your thrones, from the thrones of your kingdoms, and worship the king on the throne."
And even as the king said, Blessed be the God of Israel, and the Lord will sit on the throne of my kingdom, and my eyes will see. And he will be amazed, and all the earth will stand up for its Lord, and he will leave a man for its journey.
And the Lord put Solomon before them, and arose, and went, and blew with the trumpet of the altar.
And I will command Solomon to Memar, saying, Has his lord put off from before King Solomon, and is there one in the horn of the altar? For Memar will fulfill for me as the day of judgment King Solomon did not kill his servants in the wilderness.
And Solomon said, If there be a man who is a sinner, let him not fall from the gate of Resheia into the wilderness, and if he drink, he shall be drunk: and he shall be killed: and King Solomon shall send my sister from above the altar, and thou shalt worship King Solomon. And I said unto Solomon, Go to thy house.

Chapter 2

And the days of David drew near to die, and Solomon's body was in great health, and he said to them,
"I will bring a plague upon all the earth, and it shall be a plague upon the land
And you shall hear the word of the Lord your God, saying, "I will make you a covenant with the Lord your God, to establish His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper, and that you may be a servant to all, and that you may be a servant to all: and if you turn your face to Me, that you may be established, and that you may be exalted by night over Me." For example, if your son is born, they will give you a gift to celebrate before me in all their glory and with all their soul. For example, a man will not cease to be yours from the thrones of the kingdom: Israel

And you also know that David served me, Joab son of Zeruiah, and David served to teach the rabbis of the Chaldeans of Israel, to Abner son of Ner, and to Amasa son of Jether, to kill them in their treachery, and their blood shall be reckoned to me as the blood of a kinsman, and they shall return to me in the palace of Solomon, and I will pour out their blood in the aspen trees of the Harzite : In the name of Allah, the Most High.

:And you shall serve according to your wisdom, and you shall not return to your home in Solomon to ask.
And the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite shall be servants of your kindness, and they shall be ashamed of the food of your feasts, but they shall not be satisfied with my needs: in my lineage from before Absalom your brother

And with you is Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Mishbet Binyamin, from the land of the world, and he brought me to the land of Marran in the day of the atonement for the camps, and he went before me to the Jordan, and you stood before him at Memra, saying, "I will kill you in the sword, and I will not let you go, but you are a wise man, and you will know that you will serve him." And the day of Sheba came to the house of David, and he was buried in the city of David. And David reigned over Israel forty-two years: in Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirteen years. And Solomon shall sit on the throne of the kingdom of David my father, and establish his kingdom. To be sharp

And you, O Lord, son of Haggith, the daughter of Sheba, the mother of Dishonor, and the saying of Peace is your death, and I will say Peace.
And I said, "Pitham, I will be with you until the night is over."
And I said, "I know that the kingdom is in my hand, and that all Israel will be like me, and that I will be like the one who made me king." And the kingdom was established and was given to my brother Ari from before them, and it was given to him.
"And if I ask you for something, you will not understand. You will say to me, 'This is a lie.'"
And I said, "Speak to Solomon, my king, and let him not be pleased with thee, and let him love me, and let him love Abishag the son of Shunammites: for with him."
And the daughter of Sheba said, "I will go and pray to you before the king."
And the daughter of Sheba went and told King Solomon to go and pray to his lord. And the king rose up before her and bowed down to her: and he sat down on his throne, and his throne was like the throne of the queen, and she sat down on her right hand.
And you said, "I am not afraid, O king, if it were not for you, you would not have turned away from me." And I said to her, "King Malcha, my mother, I will not turn away from you."
And you said, "You will love me, O king, and I will make you a Shunammite for your master, your brother, and I will make you a Shunammite for his master." And I said to her mother, "Why are you not afraid, O king, and I will make you a Shunammite for his master?" And I asked him, "Is it true that you are a king? Is it true that my brother is older than me? Is it true that you are a king

And the LORD is with me, and he will establish me, and set me upon the throne of the kingdom of David my father, and he will establish his kingdom for me: as the night cometh, so shall his lord be slain.
And King Solomon sent by the hand of his sons, the son of Jehoiada, and he ruled over it and killed it, and when he had left it, he said, "King Solomon, to punish you, to call you, and to kill Father's burdens

And Solomon, the son of Abiathar, having been a priest from the beginning, went to the house of Eli in Shiloh, and said,

And Zorah said unto Joab, I will make Joab a son of Adonijah, and a son of Absalom: I will not make Joab a son of Absalom, and I will make Joab a son of Adonijah: and I will make Joab a son of Adonijah: and I will make Joab a son of Adonijah: and he shall be a son of Adonijah: and Solomon sent, saying, Benaiah the son of And I will command King Solomon, and Joab shall be my savior.

And Shimei arose and hastened to Gath, and went to Gath, to the house of Achish, to the house of his servant. And Shimei was gone from Gath, and I said to him: Yah Abdo, my servant, from Gath:
and I commanded Solomon, saying: Shimei was gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and he returned.
And the king sent and called Shimei, and said to him: Hast thou not made me a witness against thee, and will I testify against thee for a day? You have been a great and wise man, and you have known me since the day of my death. And you said to me, "I will make a covenant with you." You have heard it: "And what is your duty, that you may not be ashamed? You have done this, and you have commanded this, and you have commanded this concerning you." And Malcha said to my ears, "You know that you know all this, and you know that you know in your heart that you served David my father, and he answered, "You have done this, and

Then Kenaz the son of Solomon, the father of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the elders of Israel, went with him: King Solomon brought up the ark of the covenant of David from Jerusalem to Asakah, which is Zion, and set it up with him. King Solomon, all the men of Israel, went with him to Jerahmeel, to the city of Athika, to the city of Jerahmeel, to the city of Jerahmeel, to the city of Ahithakah Kadama: in the festival and now he will be on the Sabbath

And all the fathers of Israel shall take the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and I will sanctify the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and I will sanctify the tabernacle of the covenant of the LORD, and I will sanctify all the holy things of the covenant of the LORD, and I will sanctify the tabernacle of the covenant of the LORD, and I will sanctify the ark

And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, the Lord God, was with his people before the ark of the covenant of the LORD: and they took it up, and they did not take it up, nor did they take it up, and they carried it up, as the LORD commanded Moses. And they brought it up, and The cherubim and the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and over the covering of the cherubim, over the ark and over Jericho: from above

And the children of Jericho, and the elders of Jericho, from the sanctuary, on the roof of the house of Caphtorim, and there was no one to listen: and it was a tamarisk until the day of judgment, and the ark was in it, and the tablets of the ark were in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses had made in Horeb, even in the wilderness of Elohim, as it were: the tenth day of the month of the year, the tenth day of the month From the land of Egypt: And there was a cloud of smoke from the sanctuary, and the house of the sanctuary was filled with a cloud of smoke.

And they shall not be able to stand in their place, for the sun shall not rise from before them, but I will fill them with my blood, and it shall be called, Enough is the house of the sanctuary: Enough is the house of the sanctuary: Therefore I say, It is finished, it is finished, to establish my tabernacle in Jerusalem: From the building of my house, the house of the sanctuary, before thee, I will build the house of thy tabernacle for ever: And I will build the house of the sanctuary, even the house of my tabernacle for ever: And I will build the house of the sanctuary, even the house of my mouth. And blessed be the whole assembly of Israel, and all the assembly of Israel stood up: And I said, Blessed be the God of Israel, this land was divided against its enemies with David our father, and against its wickedness stood up against it.

From the day that I brought up my people Israel out of Egypt, I will not be afraid of Karta out of all the tribes of Israel: from the builders of the house of the Lord to the house of the Lord, I will dwell in Taman, and I will be afraid of David, to make him king over my people Israel.

And David the father of Bilhah was among the builders of the house of Shemaiah, the God of Israel.

And I said to David my father, "Let this be in your heart, that you should not build the house of God, but the son of your father, who shall be born to you, shall build the house of God to my name, and he shall be established in the house of David my father, and he shall be established in the house of David my father, and he shall reign over Israel as in the days of David his father." I will build a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

And I will make a place for the ark in the house of the LORD, and I will make a place for it

And Solomon stood before them, and built an altar sufficient to receive all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven.

And he said, O God of Israel, the night is yours, you are the God who dwells in heaven, on high, and rules over all: deliver from evil, cleanse, and show mercy to your servant, who has gone before you in all wisdom, and you have shown mercy to your servant David, your father. You have made me a night, a night, and a day, and you have cut me off in your rebellion, and in your wickedness you have done as in the day before. Judge:

And now, O God of Israel, do not be angry with your servant David, my father, for you have promised that you will never fail to have a man before me to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Israel. Especially if your son is born, you will be a blessing to him, saying: "Go ahead of me, just as you have done before me."

"And the wrath of the God of Israel shall be as the wrath of Pithamah, which I have spoken to your servant David my father, saying, Who shall be my servant, and who shall be my blood? For in the wilderness shall I find thee, O Lord, to make thy tabernacle a detestable thing, that the children of men should dwell therein: For heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot be ashamed, but the Lord shall be exalted, and God shall be the house of judgment." I will be humbled and turned to the glory of your servant and to his glory, O my God, to the glory of your servant and to his glory, the shadows of your presence: the day of judgment

For the Lord has made you a leader, to stand before the house of judgment day and night, to see this place, O Lord, where is the water? To receive the sacrifices of your servant, to see the place of judgment.

ÿÿ And accept the sacrifice of your servant and your people Israel, when they come to the place of judgment, and you accept from the place of your dwelling place: from heaven, and accept their sacrifice and pay their debts.

May the Lord be a man to his friends and heirs to his house, my mother to her nations, and may my days and my days be before your altar: in the house of judgment.

And you will receive from heaven and will serve and judge your servant for the sake of your servant, Judge: And you will receive from heaven and will bind up the debts of your people Israel and will make them understand that they are a father and a mother.

Solomon. He had a son, who was born to him, one son, and he was afraid. He was the son of David. He was my father and the father of Jeroboam, a man of Hela, and he saw Solomon. He was the son of Ulim, the son of Abed, the son of Abed, and he was the son of Manai. He was the son of Yathiah, the son of Abed, the son of Abed. He was the son of Yathiah. He was the son of Abed, the son of Abed. He was
And it came to pass in our days, that he and Jeroboam departed from Jerusalem, and I will forget the days of Achia, the prophetess of Siloam, in Orhah: and he was of the cups of the one-eyed man, and they were filled with their own blood in the cup: and one of Achia, the one-eyed man, was a priest, and he Sidkin, the king of the Canaanites, said, "O God of Israel, I am the Lord of hosts: the kingdom of Midian will be given to you, and I will give you the kingdom of the ten tribes of Shebtin."

And one tribe shall be for Leah, apart from David my servant, and apart from Jerusalem, for I will be there in all the tribes of Israel.

They have turned away from worshiping Me and worshiping the Torah of the Sidonians, and of Chemosh, the Moabites, and of Milcom, the Ammonites, and have not walked in the way of My statutes, which I commanded before, to the house of My covenant, which I established before, and to keep My statutes and My judgments, as did My father David.
And I will not gather all the kingdoms of the earth, nor will I make them equal all the days of my life, like David my servant: for I have found in him a leader of my commandments, and I have seen and established him.
And I will take the kingdom out of the hand of his servants, and will give it to you, O king, and to his servants will I give one tribe, to the end that he may reign over me, even to David my servant, all the days that I have been in Jerusalem, and have seen my dwelling place in Taman.
And you shall be a priest, and shall be filled with all the fear of your soul, and you shall be king over Israel. And it shall come to pass, if you will accept my commandments, and will keep all my statutes, and will walk in all my ordinances, and will do what is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as my servant David did. And my commandments shall be with you, and I will establish them for you.
Malchus: Rise up as you promised to David, and I will give you the kingdom of Israel.
And I will answer, "The seed of David is like a ram, not a whole day."
And Solomon came to the slaughter of Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all his works, and his wisdom, are not written in the book of the acts of Solomon.
And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years.
And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David my father, and King Rehoboam his son, in the city of Tahtuhi.

Chapter 12

And Rehoboam went to Shechem, and all Israel with him to Amalek, and it was so, that Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard, and it came to pass, that he went to Canaan in Egypt, and king Solomon went before them, and said, Jeroboam in Egypt.

And they sent and called Leah, and Jeroboam, and all the congregation of Israel, and they lodged with Rehoboam at Meamar.
Your mouth is hard, you will be seen, and you will be like a camel, you will be like a camel, your mouth is hard, and its eyes are covered with gold: we will be happy and we will be happy: and I will say to the rich, let them be reduced, and let them be reduced to a day, and let their good deeds be done to me, and let them be reduced to a people.

And no one can receive a king from the people, except a company of men from before them, except that they should be in the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite, over Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
And all Israel saw that I would not accept a king from Mehon, and I wrote to the people, saying, "Let us not have a share in David, and I will not spare a man in the house of Jesse to call you Israel, as your king is over a man in the house of David." And Israel was reduced to calling me: and the children of Israel understood in the house of Debir, the daughter of Judah. And King Elihu of Rehoboam, and King Melcha of Rehoboam, sent Adornam the

And there was a son of Pithamaya, and he was a shepherd of the mountain of Itta, and he gave birth to a house, and he had shepherds around him from one end to the other: and Ishtar, the house of the living, was a place of rest.

And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you? A prophet is enough for me. You have come to me to call my servant, and to kill my servant, And I said to her, "Bring me a basket, and I will bring it from its place, and I will water it for the ascent of the mountain, and I will lay it on its bed, and its shadow will be before it." And I said, "O God, raise up this widow, I will be with her, she will not be ashamed, nor will she die." And I said, "O God, raise up this widow, I will be with her, she will not be ashamed, nor will she die." Chapter 18

And the Lord was with Elijah in the wilderness, saying, "I will make Ahab a prophet, and I will give him a sign on his forehead."

And Elijah went out to meet Ahab, and he went around Samaria. And Ahab called his servants, saying, Go up to the house, and Obadiah his servant, and he was a guard before them, and he was a guard.

And it came to pass, when Jezebel slew the prophets, that by the word of Obadiah he slew fifty mighty men of the prophets and of the scribes: fifty mighty men of the house of God, and

And Ahab said to his servants, "Go to Arah, and take all the springs of water, and all the water-sicknesses, and let Asaba be forgotten: and let them build a rampart and a rampart, and let them not cease from Airah, and let them sail to Arah, to pass through Ahab. And Ahab said to his servants, "Go to Arah, and let them go And Obadiah was faint in the heat, and behold, Elijah was before me, and I knew him, and he fell on his face, and said, "Are you the judge of my lord Elijah?" And I said to him, "I am faint." I said to your lord, "Is it Elijah?"

And he said, What have you to do with me? If you have sent your servant to see Dahab to kill me, is he not your God? If it is not your people and your king, my lord has sent to Taman to your servant. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. And I said, It is not so. Let your spirit depart from you and your spirit from before be cast into a place unknown to you and your mother into Eve: to love and not to forget you and to kill me and your servant is from before from before, from my youth. Did you not promise to my Lord that you would serve as a servant to kill Jezebel? Is it enough for a prophet and do not say from a prophet: Enough for a man? Fifty-fifty men in a cave and a ruler in bread and water

And when you say, "Azel," tell your master, "Is it Elijah?" and he will kill me.

And he said to Elijah, "Behold, it is the LORD who has sent his messengers before me, and I will not be afraid of him."

:And Obadiah went out before Ahab and Haviah, and Ahab went out before Elijah: And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Thou judgest among the princes of Israel, and said, Thou shalt not judge Israel, O God, thou shalt not judge Israel, but thou shalt not judge the princes of the house of Israel, but thou shalt not judge And Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and to all the prophets of Baal, four hundred and fifty men, and to all the prophets of Asherah, four hundred, who were the servants of Jezebel. And the blood of Retika was poured out on the wall of Samaria, and the blood of her whoredoms was poured out like a scumbag: according to the days of Meliel, and according to the days of Ahab, and according to all the days of David and the house of Shena, he was a scumbag, and according to all the days of his fathers, and according to all his relatives, he was not a scumbag: as it is written in the book of the scumbags of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

And Ahab slept with his father, and king Ahaziah laid him down in his bosom, and his heart was warm under him.

And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa king of Judah began to reign in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he departed from all the ways of Asa my father, and departed not from the service of the house of the LORD before them. There is no crown on the table until the people offer sacrifices and pour oil on the table.

Ahaziah son of Ahab, king of Israel, reigned in Samaria in the seventh year of Jehoshaphat's reign over the tribe of Judah and Israel. He reigned for two years, and Ebadiah was king over Israel. He was the first to serve in the temple of his father, and in the temple of his mother, and in the temple of Jeroboam son of Nebat. He was the first to serve in the temple of Israel. Leah and Argiz are before them, O God of Israel, as all my father David was.
